This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

At a Meeting of the Council of the HARLEIAN SOCIETY, held at 8, Danes Inn, London, W.C., on the 16*th day of March,* 1871, the HON. HENRY ROPER-CURZON in the Chair, it was resolved that—

"The VISITATIONS OF OXFORDSHIRE IN 1574 AND 1634, to be edited by WILLIAM HENRY TURNER, be one of the Publications for the Present Year."

Preface.

The present volume comprises the Church Notes and Visitation of the County of Oxford taken by Richard Lee, Portcullis, and Deputy of Robert Cooke, Clarencieux, in the year 1574; the Visitation of William Harvey, Clarencieux, in 1566; and the Visitation taken in 1634 by John Philpott, Somerset, and William Ryley, Bluemantle, Officers and Deputies of Sir John Borrough, Knight, Garter, and Sir Richard St. George, Knight, Clarencieux, Kings of Arms.

The first portion (pp. 1–118), containing the notes made by Lee during his progress through, and while engaged in his Visitation of, Oxfordshire, has been transcribed from an original manuscript preserved in the Bodleian Library among the Wood collection, numbered 14 D.

It is a small quarto MS., in Lee's own handwriting, who has described it on the first page as being 'The Gatherings of Oxfordsher, Anno 1574.' It was formerly in the possession of Ralph Sheldon, of Beoly, Worcestershire, from whom (in accordance with his will) it descended with other books to Anthony à Wood, who has paged it from 1 to 125, and added at the end a rough index of the places mentioned.

The arms are rudely tricked, and the pages throughout are interspersed with genealogical notes and notices of arms on monuments, in churches, and in the windows of the manorial houses of the County gentry whose pedigrees are enumerated in the Visitation. In arranging this volume for the press, great difficulty has been experienced, both on account of the crowded and indistinct drawing of the charges of the shields as well as the position of the writing belonging to the several coats. This difficulty has caused a repetition of words in the arrangement, which was thought necessary in order to avoid the possibility of a mistake. In every instance Lee's notes have been printed in black letter, and all additions to the original manuscript have been placed within brackets. The pages 20, 21, 30, 39, 41 to 48 inclusive are blank, and one coat of arms only is tricked on p. 40, without any note from whence it was obtained or to whom it belonged.

The arms belonging to each place have been numbered consecutively, in order to avoid repetition, such numbering not being in the original; and where with certainty a coat could be established, the name of the family has been added within brackets.

In addition to the arms within the parish churches, Lee visited the manor houses of 26 of the resident gentry of the County, and 221 coats, showing their descents and alliances, are tricked in the manuscript. Nearly three hundred years have elapsed since this Itinerary of Oxfordshire was made, and, with the exception of the Colleges in Oxford, nearly every memorial of stained glass mentioned in this MS. is lost. Time, the great obliterator, has also effaced from tombs and monuments the records of many instances referred to in these pages. To Time we must all bow; but how much to be regretted is the fact that other hands than Time's have been too busy in destroying these valuable genealogical records,—hands of Iconoclasts, who, under a bigoted plea of serving religion, have done their work so effectually that this small volume is the only record left of the grandeur and piety of our Oxfordshire ancestors!

Many of the arms are of great historical value, showing as they do the connection existing between families and villages, and the descent of a manor from one family to another, either by marriage or otherwise. The series of arms in Dorchester Church, of which 21 still remain (although much damaged), are supposed to have been placed there to commemorate some great exploit at the time the Chancel was built or repaired. Sir Harris Nicolas has referred to the coat of Sir Hugh de Vere as being a painting contemporary with the siege of Caerlaverock,—the difference, viz. the bordure dancettée sable, being entered on the roll of arms as having been borne by that knight.

This series is most interesting, embracing as it does the arms of the most powerful barons in England at the beginning of the fourteenth century.

The following will show the number and distribution of the coats of arms tricked in this manuscript, viz.—

	From 60 Churches . .	888 coats.
	„ 26 Manor Houses .	221 „
	„ 17 Colleges and University Buildings	460 „
	Miscellaneous .	15 „
Places visited 103		1584 coats tricked.

The Second Part (pp. 119–239) contains the Visitations of William Harvey in 1566 and of Richard Lee in 1574, printed from a copy in the Queen's College Library numbered H. 33, or according to the catalogue of the Rev.

H. O. Coxe, No. CXXXII. This volume was formerly in the possession of Robert Tresswell or Creswell, Lancaster Herald, and came to the Society of Queen's College with their other valuable heraldic collections by the gift of Dr. Williamson. The volume is entitled 'The Visit^{n} of Oxon. and Bucks. 1574, taken by R. Lee, partly collected in 1575 and partly in 1597." The copies of the 1574 Visitation, although very numerous, are nearly in every instance dissimilar, no two containing the same number of pedigrees or arrangement, and many of them having the Visitation of Harvey intermixed. In consequence of this confusion the pedigrees entered by Harvey have been printed in the present volume, and as eight years only elapsed before Lee began his Visitation, the two have been treated as one; Harvey having died during the time he was making his Visitation in 1566, and buried at Thame in Oxfordshire, it is a very fair inference to suppose that Lee only continued what he had begun.

The pedigrees in the Queen's College copy to p. 192 have been arranged as the Harl. MS. No. 1412, which was written by Ralph Langman, Portcullis, and frequently referred to as being the best copy of the 1574 Visitation, and the pedigrees of

Bruley, of Waterstock, p. 186,
Danvers, of Waterstock, p. 187,
Danvers, of Cothrope, p. 188,
Pury—Moore, p. 189,
Cole, of Oxfordsh., p. 190,
Anne, of North Aston, p. 191,
Parsons, of Great Milton, p. 192, which are not in the Queen's College copy, have been printed in the present volume. The remainder have been arranged according to the Harl. MSS. Nos. 1095 and 5867, and the following additional names are supplied from these volumes, viz.—

Blackman, of Eynsham, p. 193.
Relating to the Universities, p. 194.
Bridges, of Cornbury, p. 200.
Cupper, of Glimpton, p. 204.
Pudsey, of Elsfield, p. 206.
Stotesbury, of Sowthorne, p. 206.
Pigott, of Aston Rowant, p. 212.
Fynes, of Broughton, p. 213.
Spyer, of Huntercombe, p. 215.
Molynes, of Chinnor, p. 233.

The headings of pedigrees within brackets have been supplied, and under each, the page where they occur in the Queen's College copy is placed immediately under.

In addition to the above MSS., the following copies of this Visitation are to be found in the British Museum :—

Harl. MSS. 808.
1097.
1556.
3966.
3968.
5187.
6166.
Laud's MS. 880, from which I conclude that Harl. 1412 was copied.

Many additions to the pedigrees have been supplied from a very correct copy in the handwriting of Anthony à Wood, preserved among his MSS., and numbered 7 D. Where this occurs, Wood's name in italics and brackets is placed after the extract.

I am indebted to the Rev. Dr. F. G. Lee, F.S.A., of Thame, Vicar of All Saints', Lambeth, for the following pedigree, dated 1611, belonging to the Thorntons of Brockhall, co. Northampton, one of the family of which married a Frances Lee; also a pedigree on vellum of the Lees, dated 1629, signed by Henry St. George, in his own possession, of the descent of our Herald :—

ARMS OF THE LEES OF QUARRENDON.—Argent, a fess between three crescents sable.

The Third Part (pp. 240–337) contains the Visitation begun the 12th of August, 1634, printed from a copy in the Queen's College Library, No. H. 29, or in the printed catalogue CXXIX.

With the exception of the omission of some of the arms that have been added at p. 332, this volume appears identical with the Harl. MS. No. 1480, which is stated to be a copy of C. 8 in the College of Arms, and the list of those disclaimed (together with the other proceedings taken by the Heralds at this Visitation) is printed from Harl. MS. 1557, from the pen of Richard Mundy.

The proceedings of the Heralds at this Visitation are exceedingly curious and interesting. Their own description of the reception given them by the Mayor and Corporation of Oxford, and the "hartie manner" of the inquiry after their "Royall Maister" will be found on page 240, at which time they confirm the arms of the city as granted by Richard Lee in 1574, adding a ribbon charged with roses and fleurs-de-lis, strewing the crest also with fleurs-de-lis.

In the diary of Ant à Wood is the following:—

"An. Dom. 1634. 10 Car. 1. July.

"At the Summer Assize held in the Guildhall of the Citie of Oxon. appeared with a commission from the King, Georg Owen (sic) and Will. Ryley officers of armes to visit and take an account of all the armes and pedegrees of the gentry of Oxfordshire. And to add authority to their commission 'twas read in the open Court before the judg, justices, and country gentrie. This memoire I here set downe because Mr Woods father was warn'd among the gentrie to appeare before the said officers or heralds with his armes and pedegre, and to have them entred into their books; but he forsooth, pleading the privilege of the University, or that he was a privileged person and so consequently exempted as he pretended (but false) è curia Marischalli, he did not appeare in his owne behalf, tho' he did in the behalf of the Petties of Tetsworth, and entred, what he knew of that family, the armes, matches, and issue of three or more descents, being desired so to do by Maximilian Pettie who gaue him the fees, and he the heralds."

The reference to the claim of exemption by A. Wood's father on account of his being a privileged person, i.e. a Member of the University, will account for the omission of all Members of the University from the Visitations held in the years 1574 and 1634.

In Moule's 'Bibliotheca Heraldica' Ant. Wood's copy of the 1574 Visitation is stated to be "A Visitation of the University of that date." There is no Visitation of the University among the Wood MSS. The only notice by Lee is printed in this volume on p. 194, and consists of a description of the foundation of a few of the Colleges.

The following note extracted from Brian Twyne's MS. No. 24, p. 578, sets forth a full description of the action taken by the University with reference to the Commission of 1634:—

"M^{d}. that in August 1634. Two Heralds of Armes M^{r}. Philpot called Summersett, & M^{r}. Riley called Blewmantle came to ye universitie of Oxon· wth. commission to visit in ye universitie, as well as in ye Towne concerninge matters of heraldrie & Armes. And cominge to ye vicechanc.: then beinge, D^{r}. Pinke Warden of Newe Coll. to shewe their Commission as they had done two or 3 dayes before to ye Judges in ye Yuildhall w^{n} ye Assises then held, in their rich coates, to have their commission allowed they alleadged that heretofore in M^{r}. D^{r}. Humphreys time A^{o}. 1574 their predecessors had done ye like & visited in ye universitie about reforminge of errors in heraldry &c. But ye Registers of ye Universitie beinge perused, specified no such matter.

"And allthough those heraldes had in a manner procured a kinde of leave of ye Lord Arch. bish. of Cant. then Chancellor of ye Universitie, to give some fayre waye to this their proceedinge, yet ye Vicechancellor consultinge wth ye heds of houses, ye matter did not relish very well unto them, that ye saide Heralds should be suffered to keepe any fresh inquisition either wthin the colledges (as they required) or wthin ye precincts of ye Universitie.

"Moreover there was sent to ye vicechanc. a table of all ye Coll. Armes blasoned in their proper collours & mettalls set forth by authoritie by Jo. Scott. and that ye colledges could not showe ye heraldes any other Armes than them, there sett forth; and so it would be needlesse for them to inquyre any further about it.

"The Vice Chancellor was also informed at ye universities Exemption by K. Henry ye 4th & K. Henr. ye 8^{ths} charter à Marescallis Regiis, &c.

"And that if the Heraldes should happen to fine any priviledged person for any fault concerninge heraldry, yet ye Universitie ought still to have ye fine, by K. Henry ye 8. his charter.

"And that ye heraldes themselves, nowe duringe ye time of their abode wthin ye universitie, were to be accounted priveledged men, by vertue of a Composition betwixt the Universitie & ye Towne in 37° of K. Henry ye 6. in regard that they bringe a message, letters & commission, to ye whole Universitie; & therefore they were to be ordered by the vicechancellor under whose jurisdiction they now were, and not he by them. All which thinges beinge well considered, it would be little avayelable for ye said heraldes to proceede any further in this their intended visitation in ye universitie.

"And so after the vicechancellor had entertayned them at a supper (whereat I was present) they tooke their leaves and promised to make as fayre a report of their usage in ye Universitie as they might &c. And this was all that was then done in that business.

"Here I had forgotten to procure of them ye sight of that alleagation w^{ch} they produced for their visitation in Dr. Humphreys' time &c in regard yt we have no memorandum thereof."

To many of the pedigrees have been added extracts from registers, monumental records, etc., which will assist the genealogist not only in correcting any error that may have crept into the MS. but will supply dates, which, in most instances, are omitted by the Heralds. These additions are principally derived from the collections of Wood and Rawlinson preserved in the Bodleian Library.

The last Visitation was taken by Sir Edward Bysshe, Clarencieux, in 1668, under which year Ant à Wood thus records his visit to Oxford in his diary :—

"Sr. Edw. Bysshe, Clarenceaux king of armes, was at the Crowne Inn near Carfax in Oxon. in order to visit part of the county of Oxon. being part of the province belonging to Clarenceux. A. W. was with him several times, eate and drank with him, and had several discourses with him concerning armes and armory which he understood well, but he found him nice and supercilious. Few gentlemen appeared, because at that time there was a horse race at Brackley. Such that came to him, he entred if they pleased. If they did not enter he was indifferent, so the visitation was a trite thing. Many look'd on this matter as a trick to get money. A little before his departure he gave A. W. a dash of his office viz. he entred 3 or more descents of his family, a copie of which he hath lying by him. Afterwards Sr. Edward having a coach and four horses with him, he went to Banbury. There were only with him old . . . Wither a herald painter of London and his clerk (Gregorie) the former of which trick'd the coates, the other entred them in the book of visitation. He the said Sr. Edw. Bysshe was in Oxon. againe in 1675, to make an end of his visitation but A. W. was then absent."

This MS. is in the College of Arms; but Wood's extract would imply that it is of no very great genealogical value; its contents, however, would have been interesting as a continuation of the list of names of such of the Oxfordshire gentry as late as 1674 as were capable of bearing arms, and who had been entered. I applied to Sir Albert Woods, Garter, for permission to add the press mark and a list of the names to this volume, but I exceedingly regret that after consideration at a Chapter of the College of Arms this was refused. In conclusion I beg to return my best thanks and acknowledgments to the Provost and Fellows of Queen's College for their kindness in granting me an unrestricted use of their MSS. copies of the Visitations, as well as to the Rev. H. O. Coxe, Bodley's Librarian, for permission to print for the Society the precious little manuscript of Lee's, also to my valued friend Col. Chester for many hints and suggestions during its progress. For the facsimile of Lee's MS. I am indebted to Mr. F. C. Price, the eminent facsimilist, who during a stay at Oxford very generously gave the Society the benefit of his art.

Topographical and genealogical Indices, similarly arranged as in the other publications of the Society, are added.

The inscription has been torn away. In one of the north windows, under the portraitures of a man with 8 sons behind him, and a woman with 7 daughters, all kneeling, is this inscription:—

Note.—The Monuments of this family were all destroyed when the old Church of All Saints, Oxford, fell down in 1699. The following epitaphs are copied from Wood's Notes, F. 29, All Saints parish, as having been in that Church :—

On a marble fastned to ye said South Wall at the upper end, is the effigies of a man kneeling in armour, engraven on a brass plate, with two sons kneeling behind him, & out of his mouth goes a scrowle, wherein is this engraven,—

O Swete Jesu take me to thy mercy.

Opposite to him is a woman with two daughters behind her kneeling & out of her mouth comes this,—

O blessed Trynitie have mercy on us.

Underneath all is this inscription,—

Under this tombe lyeth William Freurs & Agnes his wiff, they being thus covered by Edward Freurs theyr sone, who did this worke neither for any vaine glory, but to have their sowles even yn p'petuall memory, that every man or woman that this doth reed over, wyll pray to Jesu for to take their sowles to the eternall glory. Amen.

Under the said marble is an altar monument of the same, & upon the verge thereof is this written,—

* Buried in All Saints' Church, 14. July. 1573.

Armes on it are FRERE, granted to the said William, or, at least, to his son Edward, meerly upon the account (as I am p'swaded) y^t both of them (as also the father of William) drove the trade of brewing & malting. Reg.) had issue Henry who died without issue, Edward who married & had issue, Frideswyde the wife of Will Jennet of Talton (in Warwickshire) gent., Anne & Elizabeth.

On a flat marble is this inscription, under the pictures of a man & woman, all engraven on brass plates :—

> Here lyeth buried the bodies of Edwarde Freere, Esquire, & Anne his wyfe by whome he had yssue Wylliam, John, and Henrye, Anne, & Elizabeth, which Edward decessed the xiii. of January in the yere of oure Lord God *mccccclxb. Whose soules we co'mend to God.

Armes on s^d mon^t, FRERE, impaling, BUSTARD.

A little below the monument of Will Freurs was an altar monument containing 18 lines of poetry to the memory of Mary, wife of William Frere, together with the arms of Freere, quartering, Bamfield. This Mary was buried here 14. July, 1573, leaving issue by her husband Will Freere (buried here 8 Feb., 1611,) two sons, viz. Edw. & Bamfeild, & 4 daughters, namelie Anne, Fraunces, Elizabeth, & Mary, the second of wch was married to Thom. Brace, gent., an. 1588, and Elizab., the third was married to one Toyer.

Here also, if I am not mistaken, was buried Edward Freere, before mentioned (son of William, son of Edward), made a Baronet in 1620, whose atchivement & banners were lately hanging up over the graves of the Freers. He was ye same y^t sold the rich mannor of Water-Eaton, neare Oxon, to the Lovelaces of Hurley, Berkshire; and the same y^t married Mary, daugh. of John Stafford of Blatherwyke in Northamptonshire.

Note.—This ancient and illustrious family, during a period of more than 800 years, settled in several parishes of Oxfordshire, and throughout the annals of the county for that time, played a conspicuous part in its government. Having received a grant of the Baronies of Hooknorton and Beckley from William the Conqueror, Robert D'Oily (the first of the name) was appointed hereditary Constable of the County of Oxford, and founded the College of St. George within the Castle of Oxford, which foundation in K. Henry the Second's reign was removed by his grandson, Robert D'Oily, the second, to the magnificent Abbey of Oseney, which he, on the solicitation of his wife Edith, had founded. The memorials of the family are too extensive for this work, and, for further information, Bayley's account of the House of D'Oyly will supply the various ramifications of the preceding pedigree from the earliest times to the present century. The last of the Oxfordshire branch died a few years since at Bodicot, near Banbury.

The following monumental inscriptions are in Tackley Church :—

I. In a chapel on the north side is a marble monument of two arches, with the effigies of a man and woman praying before a table whereon are two books open. Under them is a table between the effigies of five sons and nine daughters in alabaster, praying. Behind the man's head is the following inscription :—

> To the pious memory of John Harborne, Esquire, whose name and vertues need no other elogy than their own. He married into an antient and honourable family, viz. Frances, the onlie daughter of Sir Francis Eure, Kt., of Upper Heyford in this county, whom he left a sad widow, having by her 5. sons and 9. daughters, whereof 6. of them were dead when he changed this life the 9th. day of Janr., 1651, aged 69. years. John Harborne, his son and heire, in commemoration of his deare Father erected this monument.

Over the figures their arms, viz.—HARBORNE impaling, Quarterly or and gules, on a bend sable three escallops argent, a crescent argent for a difference. [EURE.]

II. On the north wall on a little table of black marble :—

> Here lyeth the body of William Harborne, gent., the son of John Harborne, Esqr., of Tackley. He died 6. of May, A. D. 1658, in the yeare of his age 33.

Over it HARBORNE's arms.

John Harborne, son of John and Frances, married a daughter of Ratcliffe, and being very improvident, sold the Tackley estate, and lived at Cassington, near Woodstock, where he died 21st. February, 1654, and was buried at Tackley. His widow married . . . . Sacheverell, a fellow of New College, and parson of Shipston on Stour.

John Harborne had issue by her an only daughter, who married one Edward Walker.

His mother lived in Holywell, Oxford, in a very sorrowful condition, and dying 27 July, 1663, was buried at Tackley by her husband.

The only inscription in commemoration of the Eures of Heyford Warren is on a small square stone inserted in the east wall of the Church, as follows :—

Here lyeth buried Elizabeth, late wife of Francis Evers, Knight.
Her flesh doth rest in earth beneath,
Her soole above enjoyeth her right.
Kentish by birth, Lennard by name,
A noble house of worthy fame.

The manor of Tackley is now owned by the Evetts family, and the advowson was purchased by St. John's College, Oxford, in the beginning of the last century,

The Council has selected the Visitations of Oxford in 1574 and 1634 to follow that of Rutland, and the Visitation of Nottingham in 1614 to follow those of Oxford.

Report for the Year 1870–71.

THE Council has to call the special attention of Members to the Society's progress during the past year.

One hundred and seventy Members had joined the Society in May, 1870, and since then this number has been augmented by nearly one hundred Members, the total being now two hundred and sixty-seven.

From the Society's formation to the present time, only one Member has withdrawn, two are dead—Colonel BRADBURY and Rev. DAWSON DUFFIELD, Rector of Sephton,—one name has been struck off from the list in consequence of no Subscription having been paid, and two subscribed for the purpose of obtaining the 'Leicester Visitation' only.

Since the last Report the Society has published 'The Visitation of Leicestershire in 1619,' by LENNARD and VINCENT, edited by JOHN FETHERSTON, jun., Esq., F.S.A., and the 'Visitation of Rutland in 1618,' edited by the Honorary Secretary.

There are in the press at the present time 'The Visitation of Oxford in 1574 and 1634,' edited by W. H. TURNER, Esq. and 'The Visitation of Nottingham in 1614,' edited by G. W. MARSHALL, Esq., LL.M. These works will shortly be ready for distribution.

The 'Visitation of Devon,' to be edited by the Rev. F. T. COLBY, F.S.A., will at once be proceeded with, and it is hoped that this Work will be ready for distribution early next year.

Since the last Report an arrangement has been made with the Surrey Archæological Society for the use of a room at 8, Danes Inn, for meeting, by payment of five pounds a year.

The Balance-Sheet is appended for the inspection of Members, and it is hoped that the expenditure may be considered satisfactory.

The Council desire to impress upon the Members the necessity of paying their Subscriptions in advance, and of making the Society known among their literary friends. Copies of Prospectuses and Forms of Application for Membership can always be obtained by applying to the Honorary Secretary or to Mr. SMALLFIELD, 10, Little Queen Street, High Holborn, W.C.

The Subscriptions should be remitted to the Honorary Treasurer, 3, Dartmouth Row, Blackheath.

Harleian Society.
